glasba se nas verjetno tako globoko dotakne zato, ker zmore izraziti tisto, kar zavest zgolj sluti. Tega so se zavedali umetniki od samih začetkov človekove ustvarjalnosti, zato je bila glasba dolgo neločljivo prepletena z besedno umetnostjo. V modernem času sta se umetnosti osamosvojili, in prav tej osamosvojitvi se lahko zahvalimo, da imamo sedaj bogato zakladnico koncertne inštrumentalne glasbe. Vendar premore organska povezava glasbe in besede, ki je še danes živa na primer v popularni glasbi, enkratno moč, da zgradi mostove med tistim neoprijemljivim, kar glasba v svoji sporočilnosti nosi, in prejemniki, tudi tistimi z manj izkušenimi ušesi.

Prav igra besede in glasbe, druženje pojmovnega in neubesedljivega, je letos v fokusu Festivala Maribor. In kako razburljivo je bilo snovati takšen festival! Tudi ko je bila osnovna zamisel že dokaj jasna, so se ob pripravi programa razgrinjale vedno nove razsežnosti širokega polja povezav in njihovih učinkov. Bila je to izkušnja povezovanja ne le umetnostnih vej, ampak tudi njihovih akterjev, dveh umetniških svetov, ki sta kakor da pozabila, da sta nekoč tvorila enotni univerzum.

Izhodiščna spodbuda za rdečo nit festivala je prišla od zunaj. Slovenija je v letu 2023 častna gostja uglednega Frankfurtskega knjižnega sejma in v domačih kulturnih glavah se letos misli še pogosteje sučejo okoli literature. Ob tej priložnosti se je na podlagi plodovitega sodelovanja našega, v Nemčiji izjemno uspešnega skladatelja Vita Žuraja z enim vodilnih ansamblov za sodobno glasbo, Ensemble Modern iz Frankfurta, porodila zamisel za poseben koncert, glasbeno vzporednico predstavitvam pisateljev na knjižnem sejmu, za program, ki bo v celoti posvečen slovenski sodobni skladateljski ustvarjalnosti.

In tako so se ideje pletle in rojevali projekti. Ensemble Modern bo z našo mednarodno uspešno sopranistko Niko Gorič ob dveh koncertih v Nemčiji program, posvečen slovenski glasbi in literaturi, predstavil tudi v Mariboru. S posebnim veseljem na oder premierno postavljamo glasbeno igro za otroke Zvezda in srce, ki sta jo za Festival Maribor na stihe Milana Jesiha ustvarila Nanna Forte in Jure Ivanušič. Violinist Žiga Faganel, violončelistka Alja Mandič Faganel in pianist Nejc Lavrenčič bodo razpletali na prvi pogled nevidne niti, ki povezujejo ustvarjanje Alfreda Schnittkeja, Mieczysłava Weinberga in Arva Pärta, najmlajši obiskovalci pa bodo na tradicionalnem koncertu za dojenčke in malčke s pianistko Adriano Magdovski letos uživali v skrbno izbrani poeziji za otroke, ki jo bo interpretiral dramski igralec Davor Herga. Gostili bomo mariborske glasbenike, katerih imena odmevajo v svetu: ob pianistu Nejcu in njegovem bratu Adamu Kampletu tudi prodorno navezo očeta in sina, Duo Atanasovski. S slednjima se na naš oder vrača makedonski zvezdnik Vlatko Stefanovski s prenovljenim projektom Fire & Ice, ki ga posvečamo spominu na Brigitu Pavlič. Prav tako z Balkana se k nam vrača No Borders Orchestra, eden najintrigantnejših evropskih orkestrov z uspešnimi mladimi glasbeniki. Tokrat nas bodo soočili s programom, ki so ga poimenovali Sprejeti ranljivost, ter z brezkompromisno zahtevou, da se zazremo vase.

Pripravljenost sprejeti umetnost in trud, ki ga vložimo v njen razumevanje, za seboj potegne potrebo, da se soočimo z lastno ranljivostjo. Tako kot glasbeniki No Borders Orchestra smo tudi mi prepričani, da pripoznanje svoje ranljivosti zahteva pogum in samozavest. Del tega je tudi zaupanje v umetnike, ko ti na odru brez varnostne zavore tvegajo vse, zaupanje, da nas bodi varno vodili skozi zapletene glasbene goščave in čudovite tonske pokrajine in nam ponudili nepozabno izkušnjo. Ob tako prestani poti ranljivost lahko postane prednost, moč glasbe pa naša moč.

Hvala vsem umetnikom, ki si drznejo podati se na pot novih odkritij in jih deliti z nami. Hvala vsem, ki nam stojite ob strani – vsaka podpora prispeva pomemben kamenček na razvojni poti našega festivala. In nenazadnje, hvala vam, našemu občinstvu, ki se na to pot podajate z nami in nas s svojimi odzivi navdihujete za nove glasbene dogodivščine.

Pred nami je Festival Maribor 2023. Podajmo se vanj skupaj in z odprtimi ušesi!

Hand in Hand

he reason music touches us so deeply is probably because it is able to express that which the consciousness only senses. Artists have been aware of this since the very beginnings of human creativity, which is why music was for a long time inseparably intertwined with verbal art. In the modern era, the two arts gained their independence, thanks to which we now have a rich treasury of instrumental concert music. However, the organic connection between music and words – which is still very much alive today, as we can witness in popular music, for instance – has a unique power to build bridges between the intangible messages of music and listeners, even those with less experienced ears.

It is precisely this play of words and music, the coming together of the conceptual and the non-verbal, that is the focus of this year's Maribor Festival. And how exciting it was to design such a festival! Even when the basic concept was already quite clear, new dimensions of the broad field of connections and their effects came to light as the programme was being prepared. It was an experience of connecting not only artistic branches, but also their actors, two artistic worlds that seem to have forgotten that they once formed a single universe.

The initial impulse for the underlying theme of the festival came from outside. In 2023, Slovenia is the guest of honour at the prestigious Frankfurt Book Fair, so local cultural minds are increasingly occupied by literature this year. Based on the fruitful cooperation between Slovenian composer Vito Žuraj, who has enjoyed extraordinary success in Germany, and the Frankfurt-based Ensemble Modern, which is one of the leading ensembles for contemporary music, the idea for a special concert was born, a concert that would be a musical parallel to the writers' presentations at the book fair, with a programme dedicated entirely to Slovenian contemporary compositional creativity.

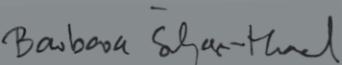

Thus ideas intertwined and projects arose. In addition to two concerts in Germany, Ensemble Modern, together with Slovenia's internationally renowned soprano Nika Gorič, will present their programme dedicated to Slovenian music and literature in Maribor, as well. It gives us special pleasure to present the premiere performance of the musical play for children The Star and the Heart, which was created by Nana Forte and Jure Ivanušič especially for the Maribor Festival based on a text by Milan Jesih. Violinist Žiga Faganel, cellist Alja Mandič Faganel and pianist Nejc Lavrenčič will unravel the seemingly invisible threads that connect the work of Alfred Schnittke, Mieczysław Weinberg and Arvo Pärt, while the youngest visitors to our festival will enjoy the traditional concert for babies and toddlers with pianist Adriana Magdovski, which this year features carefully selected poetry for children interpreted by dramatic actor Davor Herga. We will host Maribor musicians whose names resonate throughout the world: in addition to pianist Nejc Kamplet and his brother Adam Kamplet, there is also a profound bond between father and son in Duo Atanasovski. The latter will be joined on stage by the Macedonian star Vlatko Stefanovski, who returns to our stage with a fresh version of his project Fire & Ice, which we have dedicated to the memory of Brigitte Pavlič. Also returning from the Balkans is the No Borders Orchestra, one of the most intriguing European ensembles of successful young musicians. On this occasion, they will engage us with a programme entitled Embracing Vulnerability and with an uncompromising demand to reflect on ourselves.

The willingness to accept art and the effort we put into understanding it give rise to a need to face our own vulnerability. Like the musicians of the No Borders Orchestra, we believe that embracing our vulnerability demands courage and self-confidence. Part of this involves trusting the artists who risk everything on stage without a safety net, trusting them to guide us safely through complex musical thoughts and beautiful sonic landscapes and offer us an unforgettable experience. On traversing such a path, vulnerability can become an advantage, and the strength of music can become our strength.

Our thanks to all of the artists who dare to embark on the path of new discoveries and share them with us. We are also grateful to everyone who stands by us – every act of support contributes an important stone to the developmental path of our festival. And last but not least, we would like to thank you, our audience, who embark on this journey with us and inspire us for new musical adventures with your responses.

The Maribor Festival 2023 is before us. Let's embark upon it together and with open ears!

O

b otvoritvi Festivala Maribor 2023 se bodo v velikem slogu pokazale glavne smernice letošnjega festivalskega dogajanja. Razgrnili bomo raznolikost izjemnih slovenskih glasbenikov in ustvarjalcev, prepustili oder tako blešečim mladim talentom kot tudi vodilnim glasbenim (in gledališkim) silam. Dotaknili se bomo besede, tako govorjene kot zgolj mišljene ali občutene, in se podali v neubesedljiva območja glasbene sporočilnosti, ki svoji neoprijemljivosti navkljub uspešno seže globoko v dušo.

Na prvem koncertu festivala bomo občudovali mojstrstvo in uglašenost mladih bratov Kamplet, katerih nadarjenost in predanost sta jima že prinesli lepo bero uspehov na mednarodnih tekmovanjih in koncertnih odrih. Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor se bo pod taktirko svojega Simona Krečiča navezal na glasbeni svet, ki ga odkriva Poulenčova glasba, in ponudil v poslušanje preredko slišano mojstrovinu slovenske glasbene ustvarjalnosti – čudovito barvito simfonično delo Gazele Lucijana Marije Škerjanca, ki so ga navdihnili verzi Franceta Prešerna.

he opening of the Maribor Festival 2023 will, in great style, reveal the main outlines of this year's festival events. We will unveil the diversity of outstanding Slovenian performers and composers, entrusting the stage to both brilliant young talents and leading musical (and theatrical) forces. We will touch upon the word, both spoken and merely thought or felt, while at the same time venturing beyond the reach of words, to the realm of musical communication, which, despite its intangibility, successfully delves deep into the soul.

At the first concert of the festival, we will admire the mastery and attunement of the young Kamplet brothers, whose talent and dedication have already brought them enviable success at international competitions and on concert stages. The Symphony Orchestra of the Slovene National Theatre Maribor, under the baton of its own Simon Krečič, will connect with the musical world revealed by Poulenč's music and offer a rare opportunity to hear one of the masterpieces of Slovenian musical creativity, the wonderfully colourful symphonic work Gazele (Ghazals) by Lucijan Marija Škerjanc, which was inspired by the verses of the great nineteenth-century Slovenian poet France Prešeren.

časih, ko se kar naprej soočamo z bivanjskimi skrbmi – po pandemiji so nas pričakali nadaljnji izzivi, od vojne v naši relativni bližini do ekonomskih in ekoloških zagat – in se zdi, da kar ne moremo svobodno zadihati, nam grozi še povsem notranja nevarnost, da namreč sami otrdimo in postanemo zagrenjeni. To problematiko naslavlja novi program skupine izjemnih glasbenikov zahodnega Balkana, No Borders Orchestra, ki zasleduje svojo utopijo in z lastnim zgledom dokazuje, da se da s pomočjo glasbe povzdigniti nad nesoglasja in konflikte in se povezati v skupnem prizadevanju za dobro vseh.

Tema koncerta Sprejeti ranljivost je negotovo občutje ranljivosti in neprijetno stanje, ki ga doživljamo, ko izstopimo iz območja udobja ali ko imamo občutek, da izgubljamo nadzor. No Borders Orchestra s široko paletou sugestivne glasbe, ki sega od priljubljenih del Bacha, Schuberta in Mahlerja do sodobne glasbe, ki izziva, predлага, da sprejmemo drugačno in si dovolimo biti negotovi. Prav tu lahko črpamo moč in v novih izkušnjah prepoznamo priložnost za spremembo in rast. Pri tem je glasba lahko naša najzanesljivejša spremljevalka.

t a time when we continue to face existential concerns – after the pandemic, other challenges arose, ranging from war in our relative proximity to economic and ecological dilemmas – and it seems that we cannot breathe freely, we are also threatened by an entirely internal danger, namely, that we ourselves are becoming hardened and bitter. This issue is addressed by the new programme of a group of outstanding musicians from the Western Balkans, the No Borders Orchestra, which pursues its own Utopia and proves by its own example that, with the help of music, it is possible to rise above disagreements and conflicts and unite in a joint effort for the common good.

The theme of the concert Embracing Vulnerability is the uncertain feeling of vulnerability and the unpleasant state we experience when we step out of our comfort zone or when we feel like we are losing control. With a wide range of evocative music, ranging from popular compositions by Bach, Schubert and Mahler to challenging contemporary works, the No Borders Orchestra proposes that we embrace difference and allow ourselves to be uncertain. It is precisely in this way that we can draw strength and recognise that new experiences provide an opportunity for change and growth. In this realisation, music can be our most reliable companion.

Ž

igo Faganel, Aljo Mandič Faganel in Nejca Lavrenčiča združujejo ključne lastnosti glasbenika, ki doseže tisto nekaj več: neoporečno obvladovanje glasbila, poznavanje glasbenih slogov in neusahljiva želja po odkrivanju skrivnosti glasbenih del.

Svoj program za Festival Maribor 2023 opisujejo kot »Poeme večnega kaosa«, in četudi gre za dela velikanov predvsem iz prejšnjega stoletja, z njim tenkočutno razodevajo tudi občutenje našega časa.

Trio izjemnih inštrumentalistov nas bo varno popeljal na pot skozi glasbo, ki se podaja v skrivnostne, marsikdaj temačne, a tudi najlepše pokrajine človekove notranjosti. Slišali bomo glasbo, ki se spominja brezskrbnosti, ki jo pripisujemo preteklosti (kot to počne Schnittke v Suiti v starem slogu in Sonati za violončelo). Pärtova klavirska miniatura bo meditativni oddih, ki nas bo pripravil na pretresljivo Weinbergovo glasbo. V njej prepoznamo skladateljevo težko izkušnjo druge svetovne vojne in up, da tudi v najtežjih časih nismo sami.

iga Faganel, Alja Mandič Faganel and Nejc Lavrenčič combine the key qualities of the musician who achieves that little bit more: impeccable instrumental mastery, a knowledge of musical styles and an inexhaustible desire to discover the secrets of musical works.

They describe their programme for the Maribor Festival 2023 as "Poems of Eternal Chaos", and although it mainly consists of works by the great composers of the previous century, the musicians exploit these works to subtly reveal the feeling of our own time.

The trio of exceptional instrumentalists will safely guide us on a journey through music that ventures into the mysterious, often dark, but also exquisitely beautiful landscapes of our inner selves. We will hear music that recalls the carefreeness we attribute to the past, as in Alfred Schnittke's Suite in the Old Style and Cello Sonata. Arvo Pärt's piano miniature will provide a meditative pause that will prepare us for the poignant music of Mieczysław Weinberg, in which we recognise the composer's difficult experience of the Second World War, but also the hope that, even in the most difficult times, we are not alone.

nsemble Modern velja za enega najprodornejših teles za izvajanje sodobne glasbe. A glasbeniki tega sestava so več kot zgolj izvajalci – skupaj, v večjih ali manjših skupinah, spodbujajo nastanek novih del izpod peres vodilnih skladateljev ter z njimi tesno sodelujejo v ustvarjalnem procesu, družno odkrivajoč nove zvočne svetove in kompozicijske koncepte.

Med skladatelji, ki jih obravnavajo, so neredko Slovenci. Plodno večletno sodelovanje jih povezuje z velikanom evropske glasbene avantgarde, Vinkom Globokarjem. Priložnost častnega gostovanja Slovenije na uglednem knjižnem sejmu v Frankfurtu, kjer ima Ensemble Modern svoj sedež, je glasbenike spodbudil k še podrobnejšemu ukvarjanju s slovensko glasbo in tudi književnostjo.

Koncertni spored, ki nastaja ob tej priložnosti, zajema dela vidnejših slovenskih skladateljev in pesnikov: Matej Bonin je za to priložnost ustvaril glasbo na pesniško zbirko Tehno Ane Pepelnik, Vito Žuraj je prispeval skladbo Knjiga teles, ki se navezuje na istoimensko pesniško zbirko Aleša Štegra, Nina Šenk pa glasbo, ki jo je ustvarila za film Stump the Guesser, a še kako prepriča tudi na koncertnem odru. Koncert bosta zaokrožili inštrumentalni deli Q. M. (Kvantna mehanika) Petre Strahovnik in Substitution anonyme Vinka Globokarja.

Mednarodni zasedbi se bo pridružila naša sopranistka Nika Gorič, ki žanje lepe uspehe tudi v svetu. Pred izvedbo del Mateja Bonina in Vita Žuraja bosta pesmi, ki sta ju skladatelja uglasbila, prebrala njuna avtorja, Ana Pepelnik in Aleš Šteger.

nsemble Modern is regarded as one of the most incisive collectives for the performance of contemporary music. The musicians of this ensemble are more than just performers: together, in larger or smaller configurations, they encourage the creation of new works by leading composers and closely cooperate with them in the creative process, collectively discovering new sound worlds and compositional concepts.

Among the artists with whom they collaborate, we often find Slovenian composers. A fruitful longstanding collaboration connects them with one of the giants of the European musical avant-garde, Vinko Globokar. The occasion of Slovenia being the guest of honour at the prestigious book fair in Frankfurt, where Ensemble Modern is also based, has encouraged the musicians to engage with Slovenian music and literature in even more detail.

The concert programme created specifically for this occasion features works by prominent Slovenian composers and poets: Matej Bonin has created a new work for the programme based on Ana Pepelnik's poetry collection Techno, Vito Žuraj has contributed the composition The Book of Bodies in reference to the eponymous poetry collection by Aleš Šteger, and Nina Šenk's music for the film Stump the Guesser is just as convincing on the concert stage. The concert programme will be rounded out with the instrumental works Q. M. (Quantum Mechanics) by Petra Strahovnik and Substitution anonyme by Vinko Globokar.

The international ensemble will be joined by Slovenian soprano Nika Gorič, who is also enjoying great success on the international stage. Before the performance of the works by Matej Bonin and Vito Žuraj, the poems set to music by the two composers will be read by their authors, Ana Pepelnik and Aleš Šteger.

An interweaving of piano miniatures

Matineja za najmlajše.

Matinee for our youngest audience.

N

a Festivalu Maribor smo se že večkrat prepričali, da glasba z neverjetno privlačnostjo in močjo nagovarja tudi naše najmlajše, čeprav ti jezika klasične glasbe prej morda še nikoli niso slišali. Zakaj to ne bi veljalo tudi za poezijo? Otroci so dojemljivi tako za glasbo kot za zvanečo besedo, zato jim želimo letos privoščiti koncertno-literarni dogodek, urezan po njihovi meri.

Obeta se zanimiv preplet verzov za otroke in njim prilegajočih se klavirskih miniatur. Naj besede in toni očarajo!

A

t the Maribor Festival, we have on many occasions witnessed the fact that music has incredibly powerful appeal for our youngest audience as well, even though they may never have heard the language of classical music before. Why shouldn't this apply to poetry too? Children are receptive to both music and the spoken word, so this year we want to treat them to a concert-literary event made to their measure. The performance promises to be a charming intwining of children's poetry and corresponding piano miniatures. Let the words and notes weave their magic!

(The concert will be in Slovenian).

G

glasbena igra Zvezda in srce po dramski predlogi Milana Jesiha je rezultat skladateljskega sodelovanja Nane Forte in Jureta Ivanušiča. Ivanušič je igro priredil, da je primerna za koncertno izvedbo, kjer vse like v živo odigra in odpoje peterica igralcev-pevcev.

Duhoviti karakterji oživijo v različnih glasbenih žanrih, glasba tudi slika dogajanje in pripomore k čarobni atmosferi zgodbe z nepričakovanim razpletom.

Radoživa predstava vsebuje vse elemente muzikala z mojstrsko rimanimi verzi in bo zanesljivo nudila zadovoljstvo tako mladim kot odraslim!

Zgodba

Zvezda in srce je basen, v kateri živalski liki posebljajo človeške karakterje. Dogaja se na kresno noč v zapuščenem predmestnem parku. Slavec Slavko, hrček Hinko, eksot Kaktus in drugi možakarji občudujejo prelepo bleščečo Zvezdo na nebu, ko oživi kip krilatega boga-otroka Amorja. Ta prične z lokom streljati vsenaokrog, in kogar zadene, ta se takoj zaljubi. Tako se zgodi, da se vsi zaljubijo v zvezdo, ki se prav takrat utrne z neba. Zvezda pada v ribnik, za katerega je mislila, da je zrcalo, in tam jo najde Kresnica. Zvezda se lahko vrne na nebo, a le s pomočjo prave ljubezni, zato jo Kresnica pripelje na veselico pri okrepevalnici Pri ribniku, kjer se je zbral ves živelj iz parka ob godbi ansambla Tribrati Krompir. Vsi po vrsti jo zasnubijo, pri tem pa vsak razkrije svojo pravo naravo.

Kakšni so v resnici ti snubci? Ali se bo Zvezda vrnila domov? Kaj sploh je prava ljubezen?

B

Based on a play by Milan Jesih, the musical play The Star and the Heart was created in a compositional collaboration between Nana Forte and Jure Ivanušič. Ivanušič has adapted the play into a concert version in which all of the characters are portrayed by five actor-singers. The humorous characters are brought to life using various musical genres, while the music also illustrates the action and contributes to the magical atmosphere of the story, which has an unexpected twist. The witty performance contains all the elements of a musical with masterful rhyming verses and is sure to please both young and old!

The Story

The Star and the Heart is a fable in which animal characters personify humans. The events take place on Midsummer's Eve in an abandoned suburban park, where Slavko the nightingale, Hinko the hamster, Kaktus the exotic plant and other little creatures are admiring the beautiful shining Star in the sky. As they gaze at the heavens, a statue of the winged god-child Amor comes to life and starts shooting arrows all around with his bow. Whomever he hits falls in love. As chance would have it, they all fall in love with the Star, who is twinkling in the sky just at that moment. Thinking it is a mirror, the Star falls into a pond. The Star can only return to the sky with the help of true love, so the Firefly takes her to a celebration at the snack bar By the Pond, where all of the park's creatures are gathered and where the ensemble The Three Potato Brothers is playing. One by one the creatures propose to the Star, each revealing their true nature.

(The performance will be in Slovenian.)

etudi si ustvarjalci in sopotniki Festivala Maribor to težko predstavljamo, večina meščanov mesta verjetno ne poveže v prvi vrsti z glasbo, ampak z marsičim drugim. In če že z glasbo, bržkone s tisto iz šestdesetih let prejšnjega stoletja, ko so Mariboru rekli jugoslovanski Liverpool. Vendar ima to naše mesto izjemno bogato zgodovino, povezano s klasično glasbo. Del te vam bomo razgrnili na sprehodu po glasbenih poteh mesta. Pripeljite prijatelje, sorodnike, kolege in sosede, ki jih pot sicer ne ponese v koncertne dvorane. Poznavalci in ljubitelji glasbe boste izvedeli marsikatero zanimivo podrobnost iz glasbene zgodovine Maribora, preostali pa bodo po tem sprehodu na mesto ob Dravi zagotovo gledali vsaj malce drugače.

he creators and fellow travellers of the Maribor Festival may find it hard to imagine, but the fact is that most of Maribor's citizens probably do not associate the city primarily with music, but with many other things. If we do associate it with music, it is probably with the music of the 1960s, when Maribor was known as the Liverpool of Yugoslavia. However, this city of ours does in fact have an extremely rich history related to classical music. We will reveal part of this history to you on a walk along the city's musical paths. Connoisseurs and music lovers will learn many interesting details from the musical history of Maribor, while other participants will definitely view the city beside the Drava River in a slightly different light after this walk.

The walk will be conducted in Slovenian, but everyone who is interested is welcome, even if you don't understand Slovenian! If you would like to join us, please write to vstopnice@nd-mb.si and we will do our best to provide you with a translator for your language.

Davor Herga

Davor Herga je v Mariboru obiskoval osnovno šolo in naravoslovno gimnazijo, nato je na AGRFT študiral igro in umetniško besedo pod mentorstvom profesorjev Zvoneta Šedlbauerja, Alberta Kosa in Janeza Hočevarja. Študij je zaključil z vlogo Lopahina v diplomski predstavi Češnjev vrt A. P. Čehova, ki jo je režiral Matjaž Potrajc. Po končani akademiji je bil eno sezono zaposlen v Drami SNG Maribor, dve sezoni v SLG Celje, nato se je vrnil in ostal v Drami SNG Maribor.

Čeprav ga občinstvo bolje pozna kot dramskega igralca, se zasebno že od otroštva spogleduje z glasbo, vendar predvsem z druge strani kot v dramskem svetu – kot poslušalec. Zaposlitev v SNG Maribor mu omogoča, da je v bližnjem stiku z glasbenimi ustvarjalci. Poleg opernih predstav in koncertnih ciklusov v SNG Maribor je zvest obiskovalec koncertov Koncertne poslovalnice Narodnega doma Maribor. Poslušanje glasbe doma je zanj sprostitev in odmik v svet, kjer besede niso potrebne.

Davor Herga attended primary school and natural science secondary school in Maribor, then studied acting and artistic expression at the Ljubljana Academy of Theatre, Radio, Film and Television with professors Zvone Šedlbauer, Albert Kos and Janez Hočvar. He completed his studies by playing the role of Lopahin in the graduation production of Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard directed by Matjaž Pograjc. After graduating, he was employed for one season in the Slovene National Theatre Drama Maribor and for two seasons the Celje City Theatre. He then returned to the Slovene National Theatre Drama Maribor, where he has remained ever since.

Although the audience knows him above all as a dramatic actor, he has been flirting with music privately since childhood, but mainly as a listener. His position at the Slovene National Theatre Maribor allows him to be in close contact with musicians. In addition to opera performances and concert cycles at the Slovene National Theatre Maribor, he regularly attends the concerts of the Concert Management of Narodni dom Maribor. For him, listening to music at home is relaxation and a retreat into a world where there is no need for words.

No Borders Orchestra

Želja po prvem čezmejnem regionalnem profesionalnem simfoničnem orkestru na področju nekdanje Jugoslavije je porodila No Borders Orchestra (NBO), projekt, ki vabi k novi obliki komuniciranja. No Borders Orchestra, Orkester brez meja, je simfonični ansambel, v katerem so se zbrali izvrstni glasbeniki iz republik nekdanje skupne države s skupnim ciljem: ustvariti povsem novo koncertno izkušnjo, ki v duhu sprave in ustvarjalnega sodelovanja spodbuja pozitivno spremembo. NBO podpira povezljivost, medkulturnost, demokratičnost in odprtost in je platforma za preseganje nacionalizma, rasizma, ksenofobije, homofobije in krvavega izročila Balkana. No Borders Orchestra se sprašuje: »Kaj je umetniški in družbeni pomen simfoničnega orkestra v 21. stoletju?« in ponuja možne odgovore s svojim delovanjem. Prvič je nastopil na otvoritvenem koncertu Beograjskega glasbenega festivala (BEMUS) oktobra 2012, kjer je vodja orkestra, dirigent Premil Petrović, prejel nagrado mesta Beograd. Marca 2013 je NBO nastopil v Novem Sadu in Beogradu, nato se je podal na koncertne turneje. Požel je pohvalne kritike za nastope na Dunajskih slavnostnih tednih, festivalu Kunsten-festivaldesarts v Bruslju, festivalu d'Automne v Parizu in Operadagen v Rotterdamu, na Festivalih Marseille, Brisbane, Gwangju in Macao ter na vodilnih balkanskih festivalih. Orkester je nastopil v uglednih dvoranah v Londonu (Barbican), Hamburgu, Berlinu, Atenah, Lizboni, Toulousu in Strasbourg. Projekte orkestra podpirajo številni komisarji Evropske unije in Unesca, zastopniki Berlinske filharmonije in drugih pomembnih kulturnih ustanov ter festivalov na območju balkanske regije.

NBO je podpisal ekskluzivno snemalno pogodbo s podjetjem Universal Music in je pri njegovi založbi Deutsche Grammophon leta 2015 izdal svoj prvi album, The Opening.

A desire to establish the first cross-border professional symphony orchestra in the region of the former Yugoslavia gave rise to the No Borders Orchestra (NBO), a project that invites a new form of communication. The No Borders Orchestra is a symphonic ensemble in which excellent musicians from the republics of the former common country have come together with a common goal: to create a completely new concert experience that promotes positive change in the spirit of reconciliation and creative cooperation. The NBO supports connectivity, interculturality, democracy and openness and is a platform for overcoming nationalism, racism, xenophobia, homophobia and the bloody tradition of the Balkans. The No Borders Orchestra asks: "What is the artistic and social meaning of the symphony orchestra in the twenty-first century?" and offers possible answers through its operation. The orchestra performed for the first time at the opening concert of the Belgrade Music Festival (BEMUS) in October 2012, where the head of the orchestra, conductor Preml Petrović, received an award from the city of Belgrade. In March 2013, the NBO performed in Novi Sad and Belgrade, and then embarked on several concert tours. It has won rave reviews for its performances at Wiener Festwochen, Kunstenfestivaldesarts in Brussels, Festival d'Automne in Paris and Operadagen in Rotterdam, and has appeared at festivals in Marseille, Brisbane, Gwangju and Macao, as well as at leading festivals in the Balkans. The orchestra has performed in prestigious halls in London (Barbican), Hamburg, Berlin, Athens, Lisbon, Toulouse and Strasbourg. The NBO's projects are supported by many commissioners of the European Union and UNESCO, as well as by representatives of the Berlin Philharmonic and other important cultural institutions and festivals in the Balkan region.

The NBO has signed an exclusive recording contract with Universal Music and released their first album, The Opening, in 2015 on their Deutsche Grammophon label.

Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor

Simfonični orkester SNG Maribor je osrednji inštrumentalni sestav v svoji regiji z razmeroma dolgo poustvarjalno tradicijo. Pestra zgodovina orkestra sovpada z delovanjem njegove matične ustanove, mariborske operne hiše. Dve leti po osamosvojitvi Slovenije je orkester prevzel ime Mariborska filharmonija, pod katerim je deloval do leta 2004, nato je orkester v Operi SNG Maribor začel prirejati samostojne simfonične koncerte. Predvsem po izgradnji Velike dvorane je ta praksa postala poustvarjalna stalnica SNG Maribor.

Orkester, ki je nepogrešljivi del koncertov ter opernih in baletnih predstav mariborske Opere in baleta, se pod vodstvom številnih mednarodno uveljavljenih dirigentov iz Slovenije in tujine suvereno posveča poustvarjanju inštrumentalne glasbe in glasbenogledaliških del različnih žanrov od baroka, klasicizma in glasbe 19. in 20. stoletja do najaktualnejših simfoničnih del.

The Symphony Orchestra of the Slovene National Theatre Maribor is one of the leading ensembles in the region and has a relatively long performing tradition. Its rich history is closely linked with its home institution, the Maribor Opera. Two years after Slovenia's independence, the orchestra adopted the name the Maribor Philharmonic, under which it operated until 2004. It then began to organise independent symphonic concerts at the Slovene National Theatre Opera Maribor. These concerts became a permanent feature of the institution's activities, especially after the construction of its Grand Hall.

The orchestra, which is an indispensable part of opera and ballet performances at the Maribor Opera and Ballet, performs under numerous acclaimed conductors from Slovenia and abroad. It thrives in various genres, from opera and ballet to musicals, and regularly performs music of all periods, ranging from the Baroque and Classical repertoire, to nineteenth- and twentieth-century music, as well as contemporary music.

Jan Stefanovski

Pri devetnajstih letih je pričel nastopati s svojim očetom Vlatkom Stefanovskim, s katerim sta odigrala že več kot sto koncertov.

Jan Stefanovski študira jazz na Univerzi Goce Delčev v Štipu v Severni Makedoniji.

Vlatko Stefanovski

Vlatko Stefanovski izhaja iz makedonske gledališke družine in skozi vso svojo kariero odkriva izrazne zmožljivosti kitare. V zadnjih treh desetletjih je bila njegova glasba odraz njegovega raznovrstnega glasbenega okusa in neprimerljive tehnike igranja kitare. Njegovo delovanje so pohvalili velikani, kot so John McLaughlin, Mark Knopfler, Allan Holdsworth in Joe Satriani. Njegov natančen, tekoči stil igranja je bil eden od razpoznavnih znakov njegove skupine Leb i Sol, s katero je navduševal občinstvo po nekdanji skupni državi. Stefanovski je mojster tako na akustični kot električni kitari in eden najzanimivejših kitaristov v Evropi. Po razpadu skupine Leb i Sol je uspešno nadaljeval solistično pot. Skupaj z Miroslavom Tadićem, profesorjem na univerzi CalArts v Los Angelesu, je leta 1997 posnel zbirko tradicionalnih pesmi in kol, ki nosi naslov Krushevo in velja za enega od vrhuncev njegovega glasbenega ustvarjanja. Nedavno je izdal solistični album Thunder From The Blue Sky, ki odslikava njegove kitaristične korenine in vzore. Na albumu gostuje legendarni nizozemski kitarist Jan Akkerman. Vlatko Stefanovski comes from a Macedonian theatre family and has been exploring the expressive possibilities of the guitar throughout his career. Over the past three decades, his music has been a reflection of his diverse musical taste and his unparalleled guitar technique. His work has been praised by great guitarists such as John McLaughlin, Mark Knopfler, Allan Holdsworth and Joe Satriani and his precise, fluid playing style was one of the hallmarks of his band Leb i Sol, with which he thrilled audiences throughout the former Yugoslavia. Vlatko Stefanovski is a master of both the acoustic and the electric guitar and is one of the most exciting guitarists in Europe. After the group Leb i Sol disbanded, he embarked on a successful solo career. Together with Miroslav Tadić, a professor at CalArts University in Los Angeles, in 1997 he recorded an album of traditional songs entitled Krushevo, which is considered one of the highlights of his musical career. He recently released a solo album entitled Thunder From The Blue Sky, which reflects his roots and role models as a guitarist. The album features the legendary Dutch guitarist Jan Akkerman. Vlatko Stefanovski has also enjoyed success as a film composer, and in 2001 released a compilation of his film music entitled Kino Kultura.
